THE YEAR IN REVIEW

“HeartBound Ministries has changed no telling how many peoples’ lives, prevented no telling how many people from becoming victims of violent crimes.”

- Mississippi Dept. of Corrections
Commissioner Burl Cain

We couldn’t have said it better! Our volunteers, chaplains, and staff helped to break generational cycles of crime and incarceration by providing purposeful programming to the prison community so that incarcerated people return to their families and communities as transformed individuals.

Our programs include: guitar, art, horticulture, financial literacy, Little Readers, mentoring, parenting, seminary education, leadership, beekeeping, cooking, quilting, choir, Pickleball, aquaponics, book club, and we provided 372 hours of free trauma counseling sessions!

Spring Highlight

HeartBound hosted its eleventh annual Returning Hearts Celebration at Walker State Prison and our first-ever RHC at Burruss Correctional Training Center. 56 men, 90 children and families, and over 130 volunteers participated.

Autumn Highlight

We partnered with Trinity Anglican Church to bring the Alpha Program to residents at the Atlanta Transitional Center. Alpha helps create a space for honest conversation around some of life’s biggest questions while providing the chance to encounter Jesus.

Summer Highlight

HeartBound introduced two new programs inside prisons - Pickeball, and in conjunction with the GA Secretary of State’s Office, the Money Talks Financial Literacy Program. We also hosted our first-ever Hard Time Honey pop-up shop.

Winter Highlight

For the first-time ever, one of our formerly incarcerated juvenile students attended Songs in the Night! Thanks to our incredible donors we raised almost $150,000 to support Christ-centered programming.

Through nurturing nature, we’re learning valuable skills that can lead to future employment and self-sufficiency. By finding solace and purpose in the act of gardening, we’ve managed to foster personal growth, a sense of community, and teamwork. This class is more than just an educational opportunity; it’s a transformative experience of care and responsibility, both for the plants we cultivate and ourselves. - Mike, Plants in Prison student

A CLOSING NOTE

Simply put, in 2024, something supernatural occurred in the life of our ministry. Something divine. We've seen the power of God at work, in our own lives and the lives of those that we serve. Our programming, largely due to your financial support, has expanded like never before. Every week, our staff and volunteers led 36 different classes inside prisons. Our team interacted with 500-700 inmates on any given week, or 1% of the entire prison population in Georgia. That's pretty remarkable considering that our budget is 3,200 times smaller than the budget of the entire Georgia Department of Corrections.

We have so many people to thank for our twenty-first year of ministry – our board members (in no particular order: Lucy Fugate, Bob Jackson, Matt Rendle, Matt Crowe, Norah White, Robin Boggs, James Johnson, Bob Jackson, Tom Hoover, Darcy Harper, Lara Woods, Steve Peterson, Amy Durham), our volunteers and instructors (Fred Eason, Polly and Larry Bouker, Jenna Shepherd, Sandra Dixon, Kay Dillard, Lara Woods, Amy Durham, Lucy Fugate, Winn Mackay, Bill Lane, Eric Waugh, Adrienne Christian and Trinity Anglican Church, Sarah Flesher and Immanuel Anglican Church, Matt Carter, William Givens, Trent Ross, Angie Coggins and the Macon Pickleball Association, Rachel Dupee, Jeanne Sheahan, Amy Caylor, Cathi Onley, Becky Lukovic, Candy Maley, Yancey Snavelly, the quilting team – Lucy, Patti, Elizabeth, and Fondi), our chaplains (Omar Howard, John Richardson), and our trauma counselors Adrienne Levy-Millis and Catherine Geyer.

If you would like to become a volunteer in 2025, all you need to do is email Spencer (Spencer.HeartBound@gmail.com) and he'll send you our schedule for our upcoming programs where you can shadow one of our staff members and see first-hand what it looks like to serve inside a prison before deciding if it's right for you. If you feel led to become a G.E.M. donor (Gives Every Month), you can make a recurring donation at www.givebutter.com/HeartBound. If you wish to support the ministry through a book, food, or hygiene drive, contact Grace (Grace.HeartBound@gmail.com) for a list of what supplies we can accept.

In 2025, we're committed to providing HOPE to those inside and outside the razor wire. We'll continue to bring you stories of GRACE and REDEMPTION, because in a world filled with vitriol and violence, we HOPE to be a force for GOODNESS and LIGHT. In 2025, we'll continue to remember those in prison and speak truth to those in the darkest of places. Thank you for being a part of our story... HIS story.

With gratitude,

HBM ♥
